Chapter 1. Leading in a VUCA Environment

May 2020

The military uses the term VUCA (Volatile, Uncertain, Complex and Ambiguous) to describe the environment that military leaders are often called upon to lead and operate in. We think that acronym accurately describes the situation we find ourselves in today as business and community leaders. This chapter will dive into managing in VUCA territory.

- May 19 from 11:00am-12:30pm: Volatility & Uncertainty
- May 26 from 11:00am-12:30pm: Complexity & Ambiguity
- Peer Cohort Group: 1 hour, time TBD

Chapter 2. The Leader You Were Meant to Be

June 2020

Whether you are a new manager, your company's CEO, or a community Board Chair, this time is testing your ability to lead. Instead of looking back on this time with regret, we'll help you asses what you're doing well and how you are getting in your own way.

- June 2nd from 11:00am-12:30pm: Take the Hogan Leadership Assessment
- June 9th from 11:00am-12:30pm: Exploring Your Results
- June 16th from 11:00am-12:30pm: Personal Action Planning
- June 23rd from 11:00am-12:30pm: Courageous Leadership

Chapter 3. Wyoming Issue Briefings

July 2020

No one knows what a "new normal" will look like in July. But we do know there will be difficult decisions to make at every level. This chapter will invite experts in to discuss the most important issues for our communities and Wyoming.

- July 7th from 11:00am-12:30pm: State Revenue
- July 14th from 11:00am-12:30pm: Healthcare
- July 21st from 11:00am-12:30pm: Education
- Cohort Peer Groups: 1 hour, time TBD
